Action Taken Report - Teachers Feedback (2021-22)

Date: 5th July 2022

Feedback Summary:

The teachers' feedback for the academic year 2021-22 highlighted the need for updated curriculum, professional development opportunities, and a structured mentorship program and increased industry-academia collaborations.

Actions Taken:

Curriculum Revision: Conducted a comprehensive review of the curriculum to bridge the gap, incorporating industry-relevant topics and emerging trends to ensure students are better prepared for the job market.

Professional Development Initiatives: Organized workshops, seminars, and certificate courses to enhance faculty's subject knowledge, pedagogical skills, and research expertise.

Industry-Academia Collaborations: Fostered partnerships with local industries to offer real-world projects, internships, and guest lectures, enabling students and faculty to gain exposure to practical applications of their disciplines.

Mentorship Program Implementation: Introduced a formal mentorship program where senior faculty members mentored new teachers, fostering professional growth and providing support in adapting to the institution's teaching culture.
